

Two of Swords

Traditional meaning:

This card is about a difficult decision for which you don't have all the facts. You need to do something. You're blind to the situation, perhaps due to your own actions. It's time to learn what you need to know and make a choice.

My Interpretation:

The woman is blind. She cannot see what danger is in front of her. Still, she's ready for it. She has two swords, one in each hand. She has a wall of shields. Even though she's unarmored, and her hair is loose, she'll do her best. The sky is cloudy above her.
